IN MINISTRY THIS WEEK

Toni's Kitchen: Toni's Kitchen: St. Thomas Team

Each time we go to the Lord's table there is a side of the table we cannot yet see. This is the side where the saints come to join us at the feast. In this way we join those who have gone before us at a meal every time we go to communion. Today is All Saints' and we will read the names of members and loved ones of member's immediate family and close friends who have died within the past year and continue to join us at the table. We also have the opportunity to list and present at the altar the names of people we have loved and lost. Please use the card that you will find in the bulletin today.

FUND (Fellowship and Stewardship)

At the Council meeting on October 28th, as we have done in the past at this time, the church council authorized a special designation in the Thanksgiving and Memorial Fund for "Deficit reduction". The simple title "Deficit" will be added to the Thanksgiving and Memorial Fund report. Any monies gathered that are earmarked or designated specifically for deficit reduction will be totaled under this category. If you desire to help with the deficit, please use the special Deficit reduction envelopes found on the table in the entrance way. Please make sure your name and envelope # are on the envelopes.

INVITE (Evangelism)

If you are visiting today, our family extends a heartfelt welcome and please join us again. Please sign our "guest book."

Business Cards - Pick up a few up from the table in the entrance way and hand them out to friends and acquaintances. Help us advertise First Lutheran.

REJOICE (Worship, Music and Arts)

Pentecost Icon. The Eastern Orthodox church has a beautiful tradition of using icons to deepen the believer's spirituality. They consider icons to be, "windows into heaven." Please take a moment to enjoy the new Pentecost icon that is now displayed at the front of the Sanctuary. This icon is in memory of Helen Geyer.
